

NIEHS Awardees Conference

April 21-23, 2004

Frank Hanley, General President

DOE Program Activities and Training

John J. Kovach

International Environmental Technology and Training Center

Operating Engineers National Hazmat Program (OENHP)

- Cooperative Agreement Mission and Goals
 - Improve all aspects of safety and health for America's workers
 - To supply a more productive, profitable and safe workforce
- IUOE Membership
 - 240,000 Hoisting and Portable (Operating Engineers)
 - 120,00 Stationary Engineers

Program Activities and training

- Fiscal year 2004
- Content
 - Integrate S&H lessons learned from WTC into Master Instructor Refresher & HAZWOPER Training
- Development
 - Safety and Health issues with CBRN
- Outreach
 - Management, engineering groups, subcontractors including the Nevada Test site
- Feedback
 - Training coordinators/students

Program Activities and Training

- Communication
 - Utilize DPS system in training development to more rapidly and cost effectively construct and distribute material
- Training
 - Refreshers
 - Master Instructors & Train New Instructors
 - 40-hr General Site Worker
 - 24-hr RCRA TSD Site Worker
 - Update 8-hr refresher, RAD Worker II & develop 16-24-40 HAZWOPER lesson plans
 - Implement First aid/CPR unit as needed

Projected Training

- Oak Ridge Facility
 - 65 classes, 1470 students
- Hanford Facility
 - 16 classes, 273 students
- INEEL Facility
 - 17 classes, 340 students
- IUOE Facility
 - 117-hr Site T-t-T, 10 students
 - 40-hr Master Instructor/HS update, 6 students
 - Master Instructor/24-hr update Construction Industry Outreach Trainers (OSHA 502), 6 students
 - Master Instructor Refresher/24-hr update General Industry Outreach Trainer (OSHA 503), 6 students

Issues

- NONE

For additional Information

John J. Kovach

International Union of Operating Engineers
National Hazmat Program

3775 Morgantown Industrial Park

Morgantown, WV 26501

Telephone: 304-284-9129

E-mail jkovach@iuoeiettc.org